We have invited Mr. Stephen Jones from the Royal Geographical Society to attend our meeting. He will be giving a lecture on 'Nine Lives and How to Lost Them: Epic Tales of adventure and near misses from twenty years of expeditions.' Steve is an expedition leader, mountaineer, polar guide and an expert in the planning of extreme endeavours. He has been on more than 40 expeditions to the world's great wildernesses, jungles and mountains.

The agenda:

- 12.30 Welcome
- 13.00 Lunch
- 14.00 Member Updates – where have you been lately?
- 14.30 Stephen Jones Lecture: Nine Lives and How to Lost Them: Epic Tales of adventure and near misses from twenty years of expeditions
- 15.30 Any Other Issues
Our Next Meeting
Spring 2009 meeting in Dublin
- 16.00 Adjourn

Please r.s.v.p. no later than Friday, 22nd August 2008. Lunch Menu: There will be a vegetarian and non-vegetarian choice. Please indicate your preference in your RSVP. If attending, please ensure a cheque for £59.50 per person is sent to the above address by this date to ensure your reservation.

We look forward to seeing you.
